EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The aim of this document is to explain how the Gender-Based Economic Abuse Observatory has been structured with the objective of empowering women and educating children and young people. This observatory has been hosted online with the aim of reaching out to social and legal professionals, civil society entities, etc.

The Observatory is hosted at

English Version: <https://economic-genderviolence.eu/materials-and-resources/>

Spanish Version: <https://observatory.economic-genderviolence.eu/>

In both cases, access can be made from the project's main website.

The design of this tool has been studied so that the visitor can access it in a simple, attractive, and user-friendly way. The corporate colours are always present, and the titles, subtitles and text bodies always comply with the same style standards. This gives balance and homogeneity to the support.

Likewise, wherever possible, the resource can be accessed in pdf format and also on the website of the official body where it is located. This allows the visitor to go deeper into the subject matter.
